

GOLDEN JUBILEE

Virginia City Planning for the Big Time

The Western Nevada mid-summer celebration will be held at Virginia this year. For several months the matter has been under consideration on the Comstock and last evening a number of prominent citizens issued a call for a mass meeting to be held next Monday evening to take steps necessary to such a celebration.

MAY BE GOLDEN JUBILEE

The people of the Comstock are opposed to holding a street fair or carnival, most of them favoring a golden jubilee of the Comstock's discovery. They argue, however, that Virginia cannot afford to give such a celebration except in a fitting manner and therefore the matter of cost and funds will have to be seriously considered.

There is every indication that the celebration which will be early in July, will be a Comstock jubilee and that it will be one of the greatest ever held in the State.

Reno, Carson, Sparks and the other Western Nevada cities recognize Virginia's claim to the celebration this year and there will be no public function in any of these cities that will interfere.

RELEASED THE SWEDE

Elko Prospector Can Now go to his Claims

ELKO, March 10.—Alexander Engenes, a Swede who has been held in jail for several months to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, has been honorably discharged by the Grand Jury, which made a thorough investigation into the case. It is one of unusual features.

Engenes made a rich gold strike near the old Bullion district and as soon as he showed his samples of ore at Elko there was a stampede to the supposed territory. Engenes was followed night and day by covetous people of this place, and finally when he left for the spot where he found his ore hundreds followed him. A prominent merchant of Elko finally persuaded him to take him into partnership upon a grub stake agreement. He gave Engenes a fine outfit, but the latter declined to show where the ledge was, explaining that he had not yet become naturalized. He also expressed fears to friends that he feared he would be swindled.

Engenes was then arrested and thrown into jail where he was held for many weeks. Engenes has now returned to the scene of his find and says he will locate the claims without aid from anyone.

BLEW UP THE MINE

Man Who Did the Work Goes With It

An inquiry was made by Justice Manyard and a jury consisting of James Brown, David J. Cook and Floyd Atchinson, into the giant powder explosion at the Siebert mine on February 24th. The ground was gone over very carefully and a number of witnesses examined by the judge, and the trend of the testimony produced went to show that it was caused by Charles Roberts, who had been formerly employed at the mine. He had been working in the employ of the company, but for reasons best known to the foreman, Roberts and his partner, a man named Wilson, were laid off, to which they took exceptions, and in a spirit of revenge Roberts went to the mine, knowing the lay of the land and where to get the fuse caps and other deadly missiles, and knowing the precise locality of the powder, fired the magazines, with the result already chronicled in the columns of this newspaper.

Nearly all the material at the mine was destroyed, and Manager Siebert was compelled to make a trip to Los Angeles to replenish the mine with other material. By some it is thought that the man Roberts did not get far enough away from the flying debris, and that he is at this time buried under it at the mine. His partner, Wilson shares with him in that belief.—Caliente Express.

Railroad Accident

SACRAMENTO, March 9.—A report has been received by Southern Pacific offices that an extra engine and a train blew up about midnight somewhere between Capron and Goldrun, and the fireman and a brakeman were instantly killed. The engine is missing. The railway authorities have received only the bare statements of the facts and are awaiting more detailed reports. The names of the men are not known or is there any explanation of the occurrence.

1 p. m. March 10.—a wrecking party on a special engine is leaving here now for the scene of the accident. No further report is expected for several hours as telegraphic communication is interrupted.

Case to be Tried Soon

The case of Gambel and Chadbourne vs. the Silver Peak mines et al. will soon be brought to trial. This litigation involves title to the Silver Peak mines, a property that is estimated to be worth over $1,000,000.

ELECTRIC POWER

Manhattan to be Connected With Tonopah System

Manhattan is to have an electric light system in operation within sixty days. T. B. Rickey wired yesterday to General Manager Hobbs of the N. P. M. & M. Co., to begin construction work at once on a line from Tonopah.

The Nevada Power, Mining & Milling company have become one of the established institutions of Southern Nevada. The source of its power and light is on Bishop Creek, Inyo county, California, 95 miles from Goldfield and 103 miles from Tonopah. It has at present an installed capacity of 4099 horse power and has an ample reserve capacity of 10,000 horse power.

The company is at present furnishing electric power for operating mines and mills for the Silver Peak, Goldfield and Tonopah districts.

Berlin to be a White Man's Camp

The trouble in Berlin, Nye county, was caused by the employment of cheap foreign labor, but the camp was learned its lesson and it is said that the mine authorities have declared that from now on Berlin will be a white man's camp. Forty Basques were rounded up and each fined $50 and costs, aggregating $2,300.

Holdup at Tonopah

TONOPAH, March 9.—The store and saloon of H. A. Newall was held up this morning by a masked robber, who compelled the bartender to open the cash register and hand out $200. He also robbed a woman drinking at the bar of $15.

WANT THE ROAD FIXED

Commissioners Asked to Repair the King's Canyon Highway

The Bliss Brothers have lately effected another deal whereby they become the sole possessor of the Glenbrook property at Lake Tahoe. They are making arrangements to build an elegant hotel at the place and make modern improvements, and in fact transform Glenbrook into one of the big summering places of the famous Lake.

Carson is naturally interested in this venture, as the resort is but fifteen miles from this city, and with road condition right, this city will come in for the lions share of the trade that comes and goes. With a good road leading from this city to Glenbrook Carson can command a great deal of the tourist travel. Knowing this, the Bliss Brothers have asked that the County Commissioners of this county to help in the repairs of the famous Kings Canyon road. This is one of the scenic routes to the lake, and in fact one of the finest pieces of engineering that can be found on any of the Western stage routes.

All that is needed is repair, and not a great deal of it, as most of the roadbed is on granite and has not washed badly. This route was the original one to Lake Tahoe, but when fluming started down Clear Creek canyon the road swung where there was life and has been used ever since. It is a horse and man killing route at best, and does not offer half the attraction of the old road. A number of people came over the route last summer and all were charmed with the view and the possibilities that are offered to this city in the way of tourist travel.

With a big resort with two hours ride from this city and a railroad on this end, the least Carson can do is to help in the matter of repairing and keeping up a first class road for the tourist as well as her own people. It is to be hoped the commissioners will lend the necessary assistance.

To Start Work

Messrs. Esser, Humphries and Mighels leave this morning for Manhattan, where they will commence company work on the Manhattan-Carson property. It is the intention to sink at least one hundred feet on the big vein that runs through the ground and then crosscut. The shaft is to be sunk in such a manner that a hoist can be installed and deep work prosecuted. The work on the upper end of the claim where high-grade ore has been found will also be prosecuted.

With the five leasers who are working on the ground and a company crew the Carson will be one of the busiest claims in the camp. Excellent reports of the property are coming in.

New Chug Wagon

Attorney General Sweeney was circulating about town yesterday in his new auto, an up-to-date Rambler. From this time on Jim will be hustling to the new mining excitements in an auto, as the old horse is on the shelf. It's a good game, Jim.

Home from Los Angeles

Mr. and Mrs. George Richard were among the arrivals on the delayed train yesterday, they having arrived from Southern California, where they spent the winter months. The many friends of Mrs. Richard will be pleased to learn that she is almost entirely recovered from her accident and left her crutches in the land of the south. They expect to spend several days in this city, when they will resume their residence in Tonopah.

The electric lights were out for about half an hour last evening on account of the high winds between this city and the Comstock.

John O'Banion came in from Wellington yesterday in his auto and continued on to Reno, where he will endeavor to secure some machinery to rebuild his creamery which was destroyed by fire last Friday.

The Cholar Mining company has received $629.10 in royalty on ore milled during the month of February by leasers.

Will Pierce and wife of Virginia City were visitors last evening. They leave for Waller's this morning where Mrs. Pierce will remain until her health is somewhat improved.

The big smile that Al. Karge is wearing is explained in another column of the paper.

A choice dinner will be served tomorrow at the Arlington hotel. Mr. Petersen always pleases his patrons but will give them something extra tomorrow.
